DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Think of a time in your life when God's plans seemed confusing, slow, or difficult to understand. How did you respond?

Reread Genesis 22:1-2. How do you think you would have responded if you were Abraham? What did Abraham believe about God that he was able to respond with such unwavering obedience?

It is hard to imagine the thoughts Isaac was having during the events on Mount Moriah. What do you think Isaac learned about God?

Read Hebrews 11:17-19. What does this tell us about Abraham's faith? In your own words, describe what it means to have faith in God.

On Mount Moriah, we were challenged with this question: What is the thing in your life that you either trust in or treasure enough to compete with your unwavering devotion to God? How do you answer this question specifically in your life?
