DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Were you surprised to learn that Abraham's near-sacrifice of Isaac (from Session One), the building of the Temple, and the crucifixion of Jesus all occurred in the same general location? How does this help you see the Bible as one connected story?

Why do you think that God uses the Old Testament Temple to describe the life of the Christian? What is the significance of this imagery for how we should live?

Is there anything specific in your life that should change if you think about yourself as the Temple of God?

Finish this statement: When people encounter me, I want them to know that God...

Reread Psalm 130. Spend some time by yourself or with your group thanking God for His forgiveness through the once-for-all sacrifice Jesus provided on the cross.
